Ever wondered how data works its magic? Well, it's a bit like having a
team of amazing
siblings on a super
cool adventure!
Let's jump into the
fun world of data
roles!

FESTIVAL GREETING

Meet the Data Scientists: They're like the big brothers and sisters of data. They dive really deep into data, just like how older siblings dig into their favorite video games. They find hidden patterns and secrets in data, kind of like finding the hidden candies in a room!

And don't forget the Data Engineers, the builders and fixers! 🛠️ 🏗️ They're just like the siblings who build
amazing Lego castles
and fix your toys. Data engineers create the special playgrounds
where data can play
safely and super fast!

Guess who the Data Architects are?

They're the designers
of the data universe!

✨🏰 Imagine your
creative siblings who plan the coolest treehouses. Data
architects create the plans for how data
should be kept safe
and sound, just like a secret treasure map!
